🏯 Shikendera temples

Kichijoji has been a "temple town" since ancient times, with four temples—An'yoji Temple, Kosenji Temple, Renjoji Temple, and Gessoji Temple—located near Musashino Hachimangu Shrine. Collectively, they are known as "Shiken-dera" ("the Four Temples").

🌳 Zelkova Tree-Lined Street Beside Seikei Gakuen

Planted when Seikei Gakuen relocated from Ikebukuro in 1924. The tree is about 110 years old. There are 143 Japanese zelkova trees on the Main Gate street.

🌳 Green Park path

There is a walking path extending from the Sakai Water Purification Plant side to the front entrance to Chuo Park. Visitors can take a walk while enjoying the azaleas, dogwood, and other flowers and greenery.
